FEES

The fee for each counseling session (approximately 50 minutes) is $100, payable at the time of each appointment unless other arrangements are made as outlined below. You may pay by cash, check, credit or debit. There is a $30 fee for all checks returned for nonpayment. If there are two instances of returned checks, all future payments must be paid with cash or by credit or debit. It is the policy of Enrichment to evaluate fees annually in January. Fees are subject to increase at this time. You will have a one month notice if your fee will be adjusted.

INSURANCE

You are ultimately responsible for your fee, your health insurance may pay a portion of the fee. It is your responsibility to file with insurance. I can provide you with receipts for paid sessions at your request.

APPOINTMENTS, CANCELLATIONS AND NO-SHOWS

At the conclusion of your initial interview you and your therapist will agree to a schedule for additional appointments. Because consistency is an important part of the counseling process, the appointment time you schedule is reserved for you and is not available to anyone else. If you are unable to keep a scheduled appointment, you must notify your therapist a minimum of 48 hours in advance (Monday 8:00 a.m. through Friday 5:00 p.m.) Monday cancellations must be made on the preceding Thursday to avoid having to pay for the canceled or missed appointment. Insurance will not pay for missed appointments, therefore, your liability for a missed appointment or late cancellation will be the entire fee you have contracted with your therapist. If there are two instances of missed or short notice (less than 48 hours) cancellations, all future appointments must be paid for at the time of scheduling. If you arrive late, your appointment will still end at the scheduled time.

EMERGENCIES

Enrichment Training & Counseling Solutions, P.C. does NOT provide emergency services. If you find yourself experiencing a mental health emergency please contact DePaul at 254-776-5970, or call 911 emergency services.

FINANCIAL AGREEMENT:

I understand and agree to the financial policies stated above, and to pay the contracted fee at the end of each counseling appointment. If you take a break from counseling for more than 2 months, your fee is subject to change and you may be asked to complete new intake paperwork.

SOCIAL MEDIA

While I appreciate the invitation to friend or follow you on social media, the Code of Ethics that governs my profession prohibits me from interacting with you on social media. I do have a professional face book page that offers ideas and tips for living wholeheartedly as well as words of encouragement. The QR code on the back of Enrichment business cards will link you to the Enrichment Facebook page, or you can link to it from the icon on the EnrichmentTCS.com website.

About Marriage and Family Therapists

A licensed marriage and family therapist (LMFT) is a mental health professional who provides professional therapeutic services to individuals and groups that involve the application of family systems theories and techniques. Services may include marriage therapy, sex therapy, family therapy, child therapy, play therapy, individual psychotherapy, divorce therapy, mediation, group therapy, chemical dependency therapy, rehabilitation therapy, diagnostic assessment, hypnotherapy, biofeedback, and related services.

A licensed marriage and family therapist holds at least a master's degree in marriage and family therapy or its equivalent, and also must complete 3,000 hours of supervised experience in the field of marriage and family therapy services.

For more information about marriage and family therapists, visit the website of the Texas State Board of Examiners of Marriage and Family Therapists at www.dshs.state.tx.us/mft or call (512) 834-6657.

About Licensed Professional Counselors

Texas State Board of Examiners of Professional Counselors About the Profession - Scope of Practice: By law, the practice of professional counseling is defined as the application of mental health, psychotherapeutic, and human development principles to facilitate human development and adjustment throughout the life span; prevent, assess, evaluate, and treat mental, emotional, or behavioral disorders and associated distresses that interfere with mental health; conduct assessments and evaluations to establish treatment goals and objectives; and plan, implement, and evaluate treatment plans using counseling treatment interventions that include:

1. "counseling" which means assisting one or more clients through the therapeutic relationship, using a combination of mental health and human development principles, methods, and techniques, including the use of psychotherapy, to achieve the mental, emotional, physical, social, moral, educational, spiritual, or career-related development and adjustment of the client throughout the client's life;
2. "assessment" which means selecting, administering, scoring, and interpreting instruments designed to assess an individual's aptitudes, attitudes, abilities, achievements, interests, personal characteristics, disabilities, and mental, emotional, and behavioral disorders and the use of methods and techniques for understanding human behavior that may include the evaluation, assessment, and treatment by counseling methods, techniques, and procedures for mental and emotional disorders, alcoholism and substance abuse, and conduct disorders, but does not include the use of standardized projective techniques or permit the diagnosis of a physical condition or disorder;
3. "consulting" which means the application of scientific principles and procedures in counseling and human development to provide assistance in understanding and solving current or potential problems that the person seeking consultation may have with regard to a third party, including an individual, group, or an organization; and
4. "referral" which means evaluating and identifying needs of a counselee to determine the advisability of referral to other specialists, informing the counselee of such judgement, and communicating as requested or deemed appropriate to such referral sources.
